

Sad I lost my watch by Shakeel

Read the story

On Tuesday I went to stay at my auntie's house. I watched the TV and played with my cousin on his playstation. When I went to bed at night, I took off my watch. I put it under my pillow.

In the morning, I went to the bathroom. I washed my hands and face and I cleaned my teeth.

Then I remembered my watch. I ran to my bed. I looked under the pillow, but it was not there. I looked under the bed, but it was not there.

I looked everywhere, but I couldn't find my watch. I was sad.
