

The Day Where We Meet The Author

By Viktoria Strupenska (6W)

Today is one of those days where you go on a trip with your club and you look your best that day. Anyway before we start the diary entry we need to find out the main character there she is strolling to school. Her name is Viktoria, she is going on a trip or to see an author with book club. Oops! spoiled the secret sorry I can't keep secrets every time, can't blame me.

Viktoria sighed "I guess it's another day of school, at least my friends are coming on the trip with me," she laughed as she was heading towards school "Guys, wait up!" she shouted as she saw a glimpse of her friends in Book Club.

"Heyyyyyy, excited for the trip?" Riana questioned "My mom said we could all-" her voice trailed off as Viktoria was thinking 'this is not fair, I can't go to the sleepover mom would never let me' she was upset all of them could go to the sleepover while she was stuck home with her mom. "OMG, WE ARE SO LATE!!" Sumayyah shrieked, so the girls ran to their class "sorry were late Miss Wilcox," Ameile panted as she was trying to get some breaths

"It's fine girls sit down please, oh and remember to have lunch at twelve for the trip," Miss Wilcox added.

Time had flown by quickly and it soon became twelve the girls could not wait for the trip. It was like they were in a desert and they were so thirsty for water they wanted it now. "Girls who are in book club will you please go have your lunch" Mr Rowell announced, the girls walked quickly to be first in line for lunch. When the girls finished their lunch they waited for Miss Wilcox who would go with them and Miss Barnard who would meet us there. Book club finally arrived at the library where they would meet the author.

The author explained about what she works for and her childhood and everything about her. Viktoria was amazed what she hearing she didn't know what she wanted to be when she grew up but this inspired her to be a writer but she still did not feel sure about that. She knew deep down inside of her there was something she wanted to be but she still did not know about it. So Viktoria listened and wondered while everyone else was looking at the author like she was hypnotising them. Literally even Miss Wilcox and Miss Barnard's eyes were hypnotised that is how interesting she was! Finally the day came to an end. We all had a photo with the author, had a book (the star outside my window), an autograph and a LEMON SHERBET MY FAVOURITE!!

THE END hope you

enjoyed it!! By Viktoria
