

Woodland Habitat

Lots of leaf coverage to protect from cold and rain.

High trees with branches for owls

Soft soil for animals to make dens to live in and store food.

Damp conditions for snails and insects to live. They provide food for other animals.

Trees with fruit and nuts to provide food for animals such as squirrels.

Trees for birds to live in. Twigs and bark for birds to make nests.