

Activity 10d

Worried – The baby and the penny by Wai Hang

Read the story.

When I was a baby girl, I had a blue baby chair.
One day I was in my baby chair. My brother whose name is Lowen was with me.
My brother had a penny.
I took the penny from him. I put the penny in my mouth. My brother was worried about me.

My mother was in the kitchen baking cakes.
My brother ran to the kitchen. He told my mother.
My mother was worried about me. She ran to me. She put her finger in my mouth. She took the penny out.

Answer the questions:

1. Who had a baby chair?
2. Did she put a penny in her mouth?
3. What is Wai's brother called?
4. Did her mum put a penny in her mouth?
5. Why did Lowen run to the kitchen?
6. What colour was Wai's baby chair?
7. Did her mum put her finger in Wai Hang's mouth?
8. Who took the penny out?
9. Why were Wai's brother and mum worried?
10. Who put a penny in her mouth?
11. Who ran to the kitchen?
12. What was the mum cooking in the kitchen?

Can you write a story about a baby?

Can you write the story in the correct order:

My mum was in the kitchen baking cakes. My brother ran to the kitchen. He told my mother.

Worried - The baby and the penny
by Wai Hang

When I was a baby girl, I had a blue baby chair. One day I was in my baby chair. My brother whose name is Lowen was with me.

My mum was worried about me. She ran to me. She put her finger in my mouth. She took the penny out.

My brother had a penny. I took the penny from him. I put the penny in my mouth. My brother was worried about me.