

Words Ending in the Sound /chuh/ Spelt 'ture'

Here are this week's spelling words.

creature

culture

picture

moisture

nature

future

furniture

gesture

capture

structure

Start

You have two minutes to memorise the ten spellings. When the timer stops, see how many times you can write them on your whiteboard.

Match the pictures or the explanations to each of these 'ture' words.

picture

gesture

structure

creature

furniture

The movement of a body part, often the hand or head to show a feeling or instruction.

gesture

The arrangement of parts put together, like in a building.

structure

Match the pictures or the explanations to each of these 'ture' words.

moisture

capture

nature

future

culture

A verb meaning to take control or get something by force.

capture

The ideas, customs and behaviour of a group of people or society; the arts.

culture

Each of these sentences contain one of the ten 'ture' words and a preposition. Can you find them?

"Help! There is a weird looking creature under my bed," the boy shrieked.

The bananas in the cake are what give it its moisture.

Hull was named the 2017 UK City of Culture following on from Derry-Londonderry, Northern Ireland.

Each of these sentences contain one of the ten 'ture' words and a preposition. Can you find them?

Astonishingly, the artist's exquisite furniture is all made out of cardboard.

The dynamic photograph manages to capture the dangers of rock climbing.

The doctor's mind-boggling time machine is designed to catapult you into the future.

Each of these sentences contain one of the ten 'ture' words and a preposition. Can you find them?

The children have worked collaboratively on the picture on their school.

The architect has designed a magnificent structure for the new building.

Many children's television programmes have demonstrated how to appreciate nature and look after the plants and animals around us.

Now it's your turn. Use the word gesture in a sentence with a subordinating conjunction.

Here are this week's spellings to practise.

creature

picture

nature

furniture

capture

culture

moisture

future

gesture

structure

twinkl