

Activity 10c

Angry – I fell in the road by Rosie

Read the story.

On Sunday I was playing with my brother John.
We were playing a game called chase.

It was my turn to chase him.
We both ran into the road.
Then I fell down and I hurt my elbow and my knee. They were bleeding.
I went home and my mum put a Pink plaster
on my elbow and on my knee.

My mum was angry with me.
She said that I should not have chased him near the road and we both need to play in a sensible place like the park.

Answer the questions:

1. Why did Rosie chase her brother?
2. What day was Rosie chasing her brother?
3. Did Rosie fall down?
4. What did Rosie hurt?
5. Who was mum angry with?
6. What was Rosie's brother's name?
7. Why did Rosie's mum put a plaster on her elbow and knee?
8. Where did mum say was a sensible place to play?
9. Do you think it is safe to play near the road?
10. What colour plaster did Rosie's mum put on her?
11. What colour are the traffic lights?
12. What should you do when the traffic lights are red?

Can you write a story about playing in a sensible place like the park?

Can you write the story in the correct order?

My mum was angry with me.

She said that I should not have chased him near the road and we both need to play in a sensible place like the park.

We both ran into the road.

Then I fell down and I hurt my elbow and my knee. They were bleeding.

On Sunday I was playing with my brother John.

We were playing a game called chase. It was my turn to chase him.

I went home and my mum put a Pink plaster on my elbow and on my knee.

Angry - I fell in the road

by Rosie