

Starry-Eyed Stan

Fact Cards

Did You Know?

Starfish are found in every ocean in the world.

Photo courtesy of tko Unger (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

There are more than 2000 kinds of starfish.

Photo courtesy of abludlow (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

Starfish do not have any blood and they do not have a brain.

Instead of blood, they have seawater in their bodies.

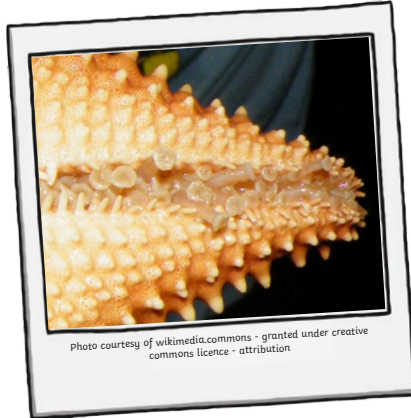

Photo courtesy of eatherKaiser (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

Starfish cannot swim. They use their legs to walk, catch food and stick to rocks.

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

Starfish eat meat.

Starfish can eat tiny fish, clams, oysters, and snails.

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

Starfish have tiny eyes on the end of each arm but they cannot see very well.

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

A starfish's mouth is underneath its body, in the middle.

They have two stomachs.

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

Most starfish have five arms.

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

There are over 4500 different kinds of crabs.

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

Crabs have 10 legs.
A crab's front legs
have claws on the end.

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

A crab's skeleton is on the outside of their body. This is called a shell.

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

Crabs have eyes on the end of stalks but they cannot see as well as people.

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

Crabs eat meat and plants.
They eat algae, other crabs, molluscs, worms and fungi.

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

Crabs swim and walk sideways.
They breathe with the help of gills.

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

Crabs live in every ocean in the world.
They can also live in freshwater and on land.

twinkl.com