

Temples

- They were the heart of the community
- They believed temples were the home of the gods
- Kids went to school there
- The women came everyday to give food as offering to gods
- Temples acted as hotels for visitors
- Grain was also stored in temples
- They would pray for whatever they needed
- If their prayer was not answered they would 'whack' the statue to show their displeasure

Temple Karnak

- This temple is over 2000 years old
- It is still an amazing building
- This temple is the main temple for all the gods
- This was the worlds largest building for over 2000years

Temple of Luxor

- Temples were built out of stone so that it could last forever
- Walls were covered with hieroglyphics which were brightly painted
- These scenes showed Pharaohs fighting and religious rituals
