

Egypt

Where is Africa? Where is Egypt? Where is the River Nile?

WORLD ATLAS

Gift of the Nile

Gift of the Nile

- The Nile provided water
- A useful ingredient for making houses
- From here, villages were created

What is in a village?

- There were 2 types of villagers homes:
 - 1) Nobles homes
 - 2) Pesasnt homes

Nobles

- These houses were built near the river
- They were big, beautiful and had many rooms
- Most villas had up to 30 rooms! Including play room, bedrooms, storage rooms and even bathrooms!
- Their homes were usually built off the ground to reduce sand and dirt

Peasant homes

- These homes were considerably small
- But still very nice
- Each peasant family had their own home, some even had 2 stories
- People usually slept on their roof as it was much cooler
- Some house might be bigger, people didn't care about the size of your house, just as long as you made it!

Jobs are roles around the village

- There wasn't any official 'president' role in the village
- Was a common leader
- Some, richer villages had Pharaohs and leaders

What is needed in a village?

- If you lived in a village, what would you want?
- Remember, you don't have much!
- Here is what you have:
 - Water
 - Mud
 - Basic tools
 - Reeds (plants)
 - Seeds
 - Family
