

Subordinating and Co-ordinating Conjunctions Quiz!

- 1a. What acronym can you use to help you remember co-ordinating conjunctions?
- 1b. What do the letters in the acronym stand for?
- 2a. What acronym can you use to help you remember subordinating conjunctions?
- 2b. What do the letters in the acronym stand for?
3. Underline or make bold the conjunction in these sentences. Underneath, write what type of conjunction it is.
 - a. As the children ran out to play, their teacher let out a sigh of relief.
 - b. My sister did her homework whilst I read my book.
 - c. I would like to write a book and I would like to run a marathon.
4. Write a sentence that includes a co-ordinating conjunction.
5. Write a sentence that includes a subordinating conjunction (remember, this means it needs to include a subordinate clause).