

Time Prepositions Task Sheet

Task 1: Underline the time preposition in each sentence and write each one in the box provided.

John has been ill since Tuesday.

since

Sam watched television before tea.

We went away for two weeks.

Tom was glad that the test was over.

We have P.E. after Literacy.

The shop is closed until Monday.

The train arrived at 8.45.

We go swimming on Tuesdays.

My birthday is in October.

The fire alarm went off during Art.

I read while my tea was cooking.

Task 2: Look at all the time prepositions listed below. Write four sentences using a time preposition in each one. Remember to underline your time preposition. For example, I ate popcorn during the film.

since

before

for over

after

until

at

on

in

while

during
