

Picture 1:

20

"I'm the greatest warrior of all," he said. "I will destroy Grendel with my bow."

The King hoped against hope that the stranger could fulfil his boast.

At dusk when Grendel rose up from his nest of rats' bones and came to the village, the warrior took out a magic arrow and aimed it at Grendel's heart. But the arrow might as well have been a feather for all the harm it did.

Pic
tur
e
2:

Picture 3:

