

Dear Parents/Carers,

Our Year 2 children have all been working incredibly hard this week to complete their SATS and have been a credit to you all as regards their determination, resilience and perseverance. When we think back, these children have not had a full, uninterrupted school year since they started at school so their achievements and results should be fully applauded.!

Next week is the last week of this half term before the holidays. All children need to be back in school on MONDAY 6th JUNE.

Regards, Ms Helm: Head Teacher

Our 'Thought for Next Week'

Next week, in our assemblies, we will be thinking about:

"HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY"

Why are mistakes important in life?

What are some of the possible consequences of being untruthful?

What does 'sorry should be from the heart not the mouth' mean?

THE QUEEN'S JUBILEE

We will be celebrating the Queen's Platinum Jubilee next Friday.

The children are welcome to dress-up in red, white and blue OR party clothes OR 'royal outfits' on that day.

They don't need any money as all the activities are free—they simply need a 'festive spirit'.

Whilst parents are not invited to attend this particular event, we have got plans to invite you back into school for some events in Summer 2.

TESCO GRANT: WINNERS

I am thrilled to share that we have been successful in being awarded 'first place' with the Tesco awards/tokens. This means the school has been given £1500 from Tesco to use towards our Edible Playground; we will be using the money to buy new seeds, plants, gardening equipment and cooking equipment. Thank you for everyone that voted for us.

WORRIED ABOUT ENERGY BILLS?

Does your home feel cold?
 Want to know how to prevent damp in your home?
 Do you know what all the information on your electricity or gas bill means?
 Do you want to reduce your energy costs?

Join a fun, free & interactive workshop for Newham residents, covering all these topics and more

The Bromley by Bow Centre's Empower project aims to help people manage their utility costs.

They will be delivering 2 energy workshops in Newham this May!

- How to reduce energy usage
- How to prevent damp & condensation
- How to switch tariff/provider
- Understanding how heating controls work
- And much more!
