

Dear Parents/Carers,

In our whole school assembly this afternoon, we have been talking about the idea of change; small changes and big changes. This is because I made a big change in my personal life a few months ago, selling my house and moving out of London. For the past few months I have continued to do a very long weekly commute to work however this is no longer sustainable and I have decided to leave as Head Teacher at the end of this term. This has not been an easy decision for me, and I am so proud of everything we have achieved together over the past 5 1/2 years I have been at the school. I would like to reassure you all that there are some clear transition plans in place so that your child's learning will continue to be at the forefront of all decisions moving forward with the leadership of the school. Whilst this is a sad (and perhaps slightly unsettling?) announcement, it does also provide the opportunity for new ideas and continued growth for the school.

Regards, Ms Helm: Head Teacher

Message from Mr. Paul Harris: CEO TTLT

As you are aware from the above announcement, Ms. Helm has taken the hard decision to leave the school from January. Whilst we would love her to stay, I fully understand and support her decision and choices. As a Trust, our priority is to ensure that North Beckton continues to thrive as it has under the leadership of Ms. Helm.

To ensure continuity we will be working with staff from within the school. To aid this process and support the school, Mrs. Shella Lawrenson, the very successful Headteacher of Ranelagh Primary School, (which is also within our Trust) is going to become the Executive Head Teacher working across the two schools.

We will let you know more information as we move through the term, but we are committed to ensuring that North Beckton continues to go from strength to strength and I know that you will all continue to work in partnership with the school to ensure that "We All Belong".

There will be opportunities to meet Mrs. Lawrenson at North Beckton before her official start in January 2023.

Paul Harris

Looking for well paid, part time work that fits round your children's school day?

We are currently recruiting for school catering and cleaning staff with several vacancies in schools and public buildings across Newham and neighbouring boroughs.

We are a local catering & cleaning company providing professional services across schools & public buildings in East London.

If you are a friendly team worker, physically fit, with an ability to speak & read English, looking for a regular role then we could have the job for you.

Catering Opportunities

Our shifts are usually 2 hours per day 11am – 1pm, term time only & we are recruiting to posts with a fixed base site as well as to a pool of float staff (minimum contract of 10 hours per week guaranteed).

You will be responsible for the efficient preparation & serving of school meals & will need to work as directed by the Chef Manager to deliver an outstanding catering service.

We offer a great range of benefits including hourly rates of £11.05 per hour (in line with LLW) with a great pension scheme and term time only working to suit candidates who have childcare responsibilities.

Cleaning Opportunities

Our shifts are usually 3 hours per day in the afternoon from 3pm & we are recruiting to posts with a fixed base site as well as to a pool of float staff (minimum contract of 15 hours per week guaranteed).

You will be responsible for the efficient cleaning of schools or public buildings & will need to work on your own initiative ensuring the highest standards of cleaning are maintained at all times.
